Land rent agreement format in nepali

3. If the landlord and tenant terminate the contract with agreement, with mutual consent between the parties, the necessary modification of the lease agreement may be made. When such an agreement is registered with the relevant authority, the amendment is made at the request of that authority. In addition to the rental photo affixed to the agreement, the contract is signed by at least two witnesses on each side. A copy of the contract is kept by the landlord and tenant. The tenant must give the landlord the name and address of the tenant no later than 15 days in writing. If the contract provides that the tenant can sublet all or part of the rented house, he may sublet the agreement, all or part of such a house to another person. c) If the landlord takes a contractual remedy or a control action, unless otherwise required of the contract, the tenant is required to repair and maintain the building as required. If the contract requires the landlord to carry out repairs and maintenance, the tenant must inform the landlord in written time. However, if the landlord does not carry out such repair and maintenance, the tenant can take care of it and, before that eventually, draw up a quote and communicate his written information to the landlord in advance of 15 days and deduct the amount of the rent to be paid. Contrary to the monthly rent not exceeding 20,000 rupees during the rental of a house, its landlord must enter into a written agreement with the tenant, in which a letter from the following business: - If the contract does not offer type or payment procedure, the tenant must pay the rent to the landlord within 7 days of the end of each month. b). The tenant commits a crime prohibited by law in the rental building. e). If the house rented from a technical and sanitary point of view does not seem suitable for human habitation. - Preconditions for renting a property: If the tenant does not act in accordance with the conditions, the tenant can evict the tenant of the house at any time. After mandating the following events, a tenant may leave the rented house before the tenancy period expires and notify the landlord in writing in advance of at least thirty-five days; Under no circumstances can the tenant demolish, remove or modify the structure of the house without the written consent of the owner. If the tenant changes the structure of the building without the landlord's consent and thus causes damage to the owner of the house, the landlord has the right to claim damages from the tenant. If a tenant disappears without paying rent for 3 months or more without notice and there is no idea of its location, the landlord must evacuate the house after the request to the competent municipal office at the local level. . In the event of termination of the tenancy agreement, it is the obligation for the tenant to return these properties in good condition. A tenant who rents a home for commercial or industrial purposes takes out the home's insurance for security purposes. However, if the person who is obliged does not purchase the insurance of the house, and the house is damaged by a cause such as disaster, riot, fire or other similar reasons, the tenant is responsible for the payment taking into account such damage. The landlord has the right to inspect the rented house by notifying the tenant in advance. It is the tenant's duty to authorize the landlord to inspect the house. The subtenant is required to pay the rent to the tenant and complies with all the conditions and conditions to be met by the tenant.
